My Dear Falconer:

The trouble is not yet cleared.
I find the arrangements for the dinner on Thursday are so advanced that moving the date a change now would be impossible. He will see you this morning. I thought myself before that our afternoon lecture between two evening lectures I be a good arrangement. Of course personally I think all in the afternoon is the best but I know you don't agree. I am very sorry about the failure to consult you earlier.

Yours

George W. Waring

University of Toronto.

My dear Professor Wrong:

I do not see that there is the slightest likelihood of there being an opening to which Miss Harvey might be appointed. If this year we can maintain the teaching positions that we now have that will be the most that we can possibly do.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

My dear Wrong:

I wrote to Mr. Gross last week after consultation with Dr. Clarke, advising him that in our judgment it would be better for him to have the Ford purchased in Canada and sent to Dr. Clarke, who will have it shipped through the Militia authorities. With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
